Tony West's award-winning documentary

A Black History Tour of St. Louis

Filmmaker Tony West Father Gerald Kleba

A Black History Tour of St. Louis Documentary
Monday, May 11th at 1:00 in the Activity Room

This 85 minute documentary follows Father Jerry Kleba as he gives a tour of important religious and secular places in Black St. Louis history. It debuted at the Venice Under the Stars International Film Festival last year, netting a win for best director - feature documentary, and was also part of the Charlotte Black Film Festival. The file was featured in the St. Louis Filmmakers Showcase last year the Hi-Pointe Theatre in St. Louis.

Father Kleba's knowledge of Black history came directly from his experience living in the community and forming relationships with the people. His interest in Black St. Louis history stems from the years of experience in predominately Black neighborhoods in north St. Louis. He spent 10 years at Visitation Parish, then another nearly 10 at Bridget of Erin, in the 1970's, 80's and 90's. "It was in those times that I made great friends and got very involved with social justice," Father Kleba said.
